EXHIBITS: July 29, 2013 - January 10, 2014 the Museum is hosting a display titled "Girl Scouting: Building tomorrow's leaders, one girl at a time since 1912." The exhibit includes items from the Girl Scouts of Kentuckiana Historical Collection, featuring vintage uniforms, historic photographs, Girl Scout memorabilia, camping items, and activities. We would like to thank the Girl Scouts of Kentuckiana for their generosity in sharing these items, and we hope that you will make an effort to show them your support by viewing the exhibit.

PASS THE WORD: The Kentucky Historical Society has created a listing of oral histories available throughout the state at various museums, called "Pass The Word." Thanks to Mayor Dieruf, who approved the purchase of a computer just to house our video histories, the Jeffersontown Historical Museum has added its collection to that listing, and visitors are more than welcome to view the video histories in our collection.

SIGNAGE: Thanks to Mayor Dieruf and the City Council, the Library and Museum now have signs directly on the exterior of the building so that visitors know they are in the right place. A special note of thanks goes to Councilwoman Pam Ware, who spearheaded the effort. The signs look wonderful, and we are so proud of them!

DONATIONS: Carole Davis donated 1960s dresses and purses she allowed us to display earlier this year. The dresses were made by her mother, Virginia Miller Chambers, wife of Franklin Chambers, who was Mayor of Jeffersontown from January 1962 - December 1973. James Maliszewski donated some c1950 items for the General Store area of the Museum. Lowell Miland Griffin donated more paperwork from the Tyler side of his family line.
